

Fort Madison Historic Preservation Commission

June 9, 2014

Andy Andrews	Chairman
Gwen Brown	Member
Linda Bruce	Member
Phyllis Brummitt	Member
Diana Holmes	Member
Bob Morawitz	Member
Dan Reppert	Member

The meeting was called to order at 5:33 by chairman Andrews

Reppert moved to accept amended agenda. Morawitz seconded. The motion carried.

Holmes moved and Brown seconded to accept the minutes for May 2014. The motion carried.

Morawitz moved and Holmes seconded accepting the financial report. The motion carried.

Chairman Andrews reported no new correspondence. None was reported from the membership.

Park-To-Park is hopefully wrapping up after many months. The State Register National Review Committee will meet June 13, 2014 to decide if the petition should be sent to Washington.

The several articles on historic preservation which the Democrat has run in the last month was discussed. Good but could always do better.

A separate nomination for the old high school building was discussed.

On a like note, the commission voted to encourage the city council to work with the new owners of the school to provide and maintain certain areas of the school historically used for public presentations. This motion was made by Brown and seconded by Brummitt. The motion carried.

Regarding the CLG it was moved by Holmes and seconded by Reppert that we file a national yearly report. Motion carried

A new tourism guide is now available. A similar brochure for the walking tour of Victorian homes is also needed.

July 17 - 27 will be designated as a celebration of the 175th year of Ft. Madison. The city is in charge.

At 6:33 Reppert moved and Brummitt seconded that the meeting be adjourned. Motion carried.